

Admiring BEES
at Babylonstoren

Presented by
Bee expert Mike Allsopp & the garden team

Date:
Wednesday 7 October 2014

Time:
10h00 -16h00

Meet us at the Farm Shop at 10h00 for a walk through the kitchen garden to have a look at the plants that attract bees.

During the morning Mike Allsopp, local expert on bees at the Agricultural Research Council, will share some interesting facts and myths about bees.

After lunch we put on our beekeeping suits to inspect the swarms, and harvest fresh honey from the hives in the garden

Lunch will be enjoyed at the Greenhouse Restaurant.

Cost R 450 per person
