Gundula Deutschlander from Babylonstoren garden

4 November 2015

10h00 – 16h00

Meet Gundula at the Farm Shop for a guided walk through the garden. On our way to the garden lecture room - as Gundula shares her knowledge of ancient and modern herbalism - we will leisurely gather ingredients to concoct tantalising teas and tisanes.

The afternoon we will discuss the various preserving methods of tea leaves to allow you to enjoy nature’s bounty throughout the seasons. We will also make refreshing cordials for each to take home.

Lunch will be enjoyed in the Greenhouse Restaurant.
